CREATED: MARCH 9, 2018
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TROST MARKETING HIRES RANDY LANGLEY AS MARKETING & PROMOTIONS STRATEGIST

Trost Marketing & Consulting Group LLC is pleased to announce it's recent hire of Randy Langley, who will join the Trost Marketing team as Marketing & Promotions Strategist at their Tulsa, OK facility. Within this role Randy will work directly with businesses to help them grow their brand and attract new customers with strategically selected promotional products and printing services.

Randy comes to Trost Marketing with 24+ years of experience in the printing and promotional marketing field. He has served as past president of the American Marketing Association Tulsa Chapter and has a degree in marketing from Vanguard University of Southern California. Randy is an active member in his community and currently serves on the board for the Home Builders Association of Tulsa, is president of the HBA Associates Council, serves as a board member of the Tulsa Apartment Association, and was recently recognized as the 2018 Bixby Chamber Volunteer of the Year. His extensive marketing background and previous job history in printing and promotional items has helped him to make an easy transition to his current position with Trost Marketing.

"Randy brings a wealth of expertise to our team" said Evan Uyetake, president of Trost Marketing. "His knowledge of the industry and personal touch are a perfect fit for our culture at Trost Marketing. Our company focus is to provide marketing solutions that fuel growth and adding Randy to our team is another calculated step for Trost Marketing to be the leader in 'turn-key' marketing solutions. Please join me in welcoming Randy to the TM team!"
